Oficina: Martes y Jueves 15:00-16:00 o previa cita

Objetivo

Este curso se propone introducir a los alumnos en los “grandes temas” de la ciencia política: la cuestión del orden político, el origen del Estado moderno, las causas y consecuencias de las revoluciones sociales, el papel de las instituciones en el desarrollo económico, y la naturaleza de los regímenes políticos.

A lo largo del curso, responderemos preguntas del tipo: ¿Cómo surgieron los estados nacionales? ¿Por qué el descontento social no siempre se traduce en protestas y revoluciones? ¿Bajo qué circunstancias la movilización de identidades étnicas termina en violencia o guerras civiles? ¿Cuáles son las causas y las consecuencias de la democracia? Si las instituciones son clave para el desarrollo, ¿cómo se explica la supervivencia de instituciones deficientes cuando no directamente nefastas?

Calificación

- Participación en clase (10%). Se espera que los alumnos lean la bibliografía obligatoria a fin de participar en clase y/o responder las preguntas formuladas por el profesor. En cada sesión, 3-4 alumnos serán elegidos al azar para responder preguntas sobre la bibliografía correspondiente a dicha sesión.
- Pregunta fundamentada (10%). A más tardar el miércoles de cada semana, los alumnos enviarán por correo electrónico una pregunta fundamentada sobre algunos de los textos de la bibliografía obligatoria correspondientes a dicha semana.
- Reseña (20%). En la última semana de clase, los estudiantes entregarán un ensayo de no más de 6 páginas, a doble espacio, reseñando alguno de los pares de novelas/películas listados en el temario, y relacionándolos con alguno(s) de los textos incluidos en la bibliografía.
- Examen parcial (25%). A mitad del semestre habrá un examen parcial cubriendo los temas vistos hasta entonces.

- Ensayo final (35%). La última semana de clases, el profesor entregará una lista de 3-4 preguntas sobre algunos de los temas vistos en clase. Los alumnos deberán elegir una de ellas y responderla con un ensayo de no más de 8 páginas, a doble espacio. El ensayo deberá incluir referencias tanto a la bibliografía obligatoria como a la optativa.

Lecturas

Además de la bibliografía obligatoria y optativa correspondiente a cada sesión, los alumnos elegirán alguno de los siguientes pares de novelas y películas y elaborarán una reseña crítica de los mismos, destacando su conexión (o falta de ella) con algunos de los textos leídos en clase.

Integridad académica

Según el artículo 5bis del Reglamento de Titulación del ITAM, “la reproducción parcial o total de textos o productos ajenos, de autor conocido o anónimo, publicados por cualquier medio o inéditos, sin entrecomillar los pasajes o elementos reproducidos o sin hacer la referencia bibliográfica pertinente” constituye plagio o fraude académico. Las citas a otros autores son bienvenidas, pero deben ser reconocidas como tales.
